THE TIMES.
A. H. CLEMENT Editor.
WEDNESDAY, NOV. 28, 1906.

"Be ye thankful." Not because the President recommends it, not that the Governor endorses the recommendation, but because it is a direct command of our God. And if the command had not been given we should still be thankful because we are not in hell and there is hope of heaven; because we have health and friends, and food, and raiment, and home and country and civilization and schools and hospitals and libraries and "seed time and harvest." We have had the grateful shade during the summer, and now that winter's cold is returning there is glow on our hearth stones and cheer in our homes. And are there some, yes many of our fellow mortals who have none of these good things? Not the health, it may be, nor the warm hearth stone, nor the meal in the barrel, nor the oil in the cruise,' nor gentle courtesies along the way, but there are none so poor whose memories do not recall some happy moments in by gone days and to whom hope cannot give a home of eternal bliss. Cheer up brother man! better still "trust in the Lord and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land and verily thou shalt be fed." "Be ye thankful" on the morro-, and on all the morrows to follow, and in Heaven you will rejoice because of the way by which you were led.

New York City is rightly called Greater New York,' but who ever sees in the market a piece of machinery, a shoe, a print, a wagon, a carriage, a car, a bar of soap, a knife, a razor, a wine, a beer, a flour a medicine, with the great city on their manufacturing home? Was any great preacher ever born there? or great singer? or great actor? or great inventor? or great scholar? or great statesman? Does its greatness not find its source in Wall Street? and isn't its power-producing quality due to the fact that all the people are constantly pouring all their money into this insatiate monster's craw?

The majority should rule in the Eastern Hospital investigation as in all other affairs of public moment. Any other plan would blot Democratic institutions from the face of the earth, from the world's economics. Anarchism is not much more to be feared than is one-man power, and the minority rush carried to its ultimate conclusion means just that. The man who bolts his party's convention is "sowing the wind."

If piratic Pennsylvania does gobble up the Fredericksburg & Potomac, our hope is that Virginia will enforce one of her ancient laws and establish an unbroken series of holdup, at intervals of 100 yards from the Potomac to the James. The old mother put to route reconstruction outlaws and she will put an surely "down" the railway bandits.

Some of his admirers have been boasting of this attack made upon Hearst by Root just prior to the late election. In our opinion no more disgraceful performance by a man in high place has ever been witnessed in the history of the country.

West Virginia is claiming second place among the states of the Union as a coal producing state, but as a debt payer she "is'nt in it." If she had remained part of the mother commonwealth, as she should have done, this stain would not have rested on her.

History blazes with account of brilliant visitors but the finest success of the ages was achieved when the South conquered reconstruction. No parallel to it. It is simply peerless in the realm of human endeavor.

Are Virginians losing their State pride? It would seem so from the way the Boards of Supervisors of the different counties are dealing with the subject of exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition.

All roads will soon be leading to Jamestown, and yet how few of the counties of the State will be seen walking in them. This is inexplicable and inexcusable indifference.

Let Lieut. Peary take up a more practical and useful job than that of hunting for the North end of the universe.

THE BIGGEST STICK.

It has been suggested that our contemporary, the Southside Virginian reversed itself in commenting on the Clem-nt trial. It said in a former issue when an important criminal trial was on docket that "the least said about such things the better." It's the old story of "whose ox is being gored,' and then the organ of the gang must pipe when the boss says so—if indeed the article was not the work of the boss himself.

Who are the owners of the Virginian? H. D. Flood, who draws a salary from the Federal Treasury, S L. Ferguson, who draws a salary from the county treasury, Joseph Button, who draws a salary from the State treasury and J. R. Horsley, who draws a salary from the county treasury.

Verily a big stick is this.

A Correction.

At the last meeting of Dillwyn Union, A. S. of E., I was directed to write you asking the correction of a report that recently was published in your paper to the effect that the tobacco poolers of Dillwyn would recieve only lugs and primings. They will receive and pool any grade of tobacco but will buy only lugs and primings. For all tobacco pooled the bank will advance the owner one-half of what the tobacco is worth the day it is pooled.

The Union considers that its business has been injured by the mistaken report and hope that you will kindly and promptly give the correction a prominent place in your columns.

Very truly yours,
JNO. K. WHITE, Secty.

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.

Farmers as a rule do not keep books of accounts. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank is safer than using money: because the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.

Money deposited in a bank is not so easily or so often "Fooled away" as when carried a day in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books and we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.

The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.

When you are in Lynchburg call in and inspect our new banking room.

THE TIMES.
WEDNESDAY, NOV. 28, 1906.

Mrs. Ellis Oder is sick.

Now watch the TIMES grow.

A good squirrel dog is wanted.

A blacksmith is wanted at Hixburg.

Holiday shopping is now in order.

"It aint no disgrace to run when you is skeered."

Mr. B. G. Anderson spent several days in Farmville this week.

Tomorrow let us give thanks unto the giver of every perfect gift.

There will be services at Hixburg next Sunday morning and night by Dr. Winn.

The friends of Miss Mattie Goodman will be glad to know that she is improving.

There will be a Union Thanksgiving service at the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning.

Mr. Geo. L. Ferguson was stricken with paralysis Saturday night and his condition is serious.

Miss Ethel Ambler, who is attending the Normal at Farmville, is spending Thanksgiving here.

The friends of Miss Mattie Caldwell will regret to learn of her illness in Lynchburg Her mother Mrs. J. R. Caldwell is with her.

Rev. Mr. Kennard was called to Gray yesterday to conduct the funeral services of on of his former church members of that place.

The TIMES is enjoying a little boom in new subscriptions. Let good work continue. Many of our old subscribers are paying up back dues and for one year in advance. Thanks.

Tomorrow Pete Hancock, our colored boy, will do good work for M. L. on the gridiron. Davidson college boys will tackle W. M. L. Lynchburg grounds in a hot football game.

Mr. Miff Davidson received an ugly gash in the face Monday from a butcher's knife. Miff was butchering a calf when the animal gave a lunge and drove the knife into his face. He is painfully, though not seriously hurt.

Several of our county teachers are attending the Educational meeting in Richmond this week. Among them are: Supt. Hannah, Miss McDonald, Mrs. Reynolds, Miss Margaret Smith and ex-Clerk Allen.

Miss Allen Rockefeller, who is Sunday school class "the poor are poor", it looks as if he has a double set to "what they a re going to do to his dad", in Fluvanna County 6 inches of rain fell in Louisa County in less than three days. That's a wale of water!

SAVED MY LIFE

That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't refer to testimonials addressing the public, the above remark and similar expressions are seen so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion they are worthy of special note. From many to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying impaired and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no part of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does and how it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. When the system is too weak or fails to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.
Be sure that the picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

The big closing out sale at D. W. Myers is still in progress. You can't afford to miss it. His new fall stock is being opened up daily and is sold at cost. The reason for doing this is Mr. Myers is going to retire from the clothing business and is making price to move the stock. They will not last long at the prices he is putting on his entire stock. The time to buy is now. The place is D. W. Myers, 824 Main Street, Lynchburg, Va. The reason is prices are at and below cost. Goods marked in plain figures.

Christmas and New Year Holiday Excursions via Southern Railway.

Appomattox and Buckingham out of Quarantine.

The Lynchburg News in commenting on the situation says:
By a recent order given by the United States Secretary of Agriculture, the following counties have been released from cattle quarantine: Amelia, Appomattox, Buckingham, Campbell, Cumberland, Franklin, Matthews, Nottoway, Powhatan and Prince Edward.
The farms and cattle within those counties that have been quarantined during the post season still remain under quarantine and under supervision of the State Veterinarian. By his release of uninfected cattle over 90 per cent of the cattle of these counties will be allowed the advantages of the best markets, while the remaining infected cattle will be kept under more restricted confinement than heretofore, until released by the State Veterinarian after disinfection performed by owners.
The cattle men gaining this privilege for this and coming years should always bear in mind that it is done under the agreement that they hold all infected farms in quarantine until clear. Any violation of quarantine will subject the counties to be requarantined and their non-immune cattle to the penalties of tick fever.
This season's work in Federal and State co-operation in eradication of ticks has developed a condition scarcely hoped for by its friends, on account of the slight infection found in some counties after a most careful search. It indicates a correspondingly favorable condition for the remaining counties of Virginia, the majority of which may be released during 1907 by sincere and active co-operation of county, State and Federal officials in quarantine of infected stock.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West third St., Davenport, Iowa writes: "A severe cold contracted 2½ years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one 50 cent bottle entirely cured me of Asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering."

Progress is noted in two ways, viz:
1st—The incentive to make provisions for future demands.
2d—The care to make the best possible results of the present.
And so it is today, by such methods,
LYNCHBURG'S GREATER STORE
Stands out as substantial evidence of these two potent factors in commercial upbuilding.
We are never satisfied, no matter how good the service, no matter how splendid the results of our efforts, no matter how superb are the assortments of merchandise offered in our various departments.
We are planning for better conditions, striving to make this store the foremost in the State, and it shall be done only by fair dealing, courteous treatment and prevailing low prices.
